Our books have been closed and are all put away
For another school year is done—
A year that was work, in our struggle to learn
And a year that has meant lots of fun.

While the Freshmen are happy, the Sophomores are gay,
And the Juniors exceedingly glad—
In the hearts of the Seniors, mixed in with the joy
Is a feeling that somehow is sad.

That long 'waited day has finally come,
And we find that we leave—with a sigh—
All the friends, and the work, and the joy we have known
When we went to Parma Schaaf High.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

J. H. Wanek, Clerk-Treasurer; David R. Forrest, Ray W. Ruch, Wilbert J. Montie, Carl D. Steffen, President; Earl C. Gibbs, Vice President; Carl C. Byers, Superintendent of Schools; Helen L. Godman, Secretary to the Superintendent and to the Board.

Men from many businesses and professions make up our board of education which acts as mediator between the citizens of the community and the superintendent of schools. These men have the great responsibility of forming the program and new policies which tend to result in better schools. As executive officers of the board, the superintendent must look to this group for wholehearted interest and support.

MR. CARL C. BYERS, B.Sc., M.A.

The Parma Board of Education had the good fortune to secure Mr. Carl C. Byers in 1942 as superintendent of schools. The youngest head executive of a school system in Ohio, he has promoted general interest in the welfare of the school and the student, and has become well known throughout the entire state for his excellent leadership and good nature. He is the spirit of progressiveness personified.

MR. WILLIAM S. BASSETT, A.B., M.A.

Having risen from position of teacher to that of principal of Parma Schaaf High School, Mr. William S. Bassett has had a great deal of experience in the administration of school policies and activities. Through his just leadership and wise counsel he has won the respect of every Parma student. Mr. Bassett has promoted the best interests of the school in every respect and has always backed extra-curricular activities with keen judgment.

Mr. William B. Pilot, A.B., M.A.

CLASS PROPHECY

Good evening, friends, this is your friendly news announcer, JAMES CHOPAK. Before I present Mr. Conrad, your favorite news commentator, here is the announcement you've been waiting for. Steener's weiners are back and no one wants them. This evening we have hundreds of unsolicited letters from enthusiastic eaters of Steener's delectable weiners. Here's one from AL SCHIGULINSKY of Ohio. He says, "As a trash man I find plenty of Steener's weiners in peoples' trash cans." MARGARET KISEL, a telephone operator from Kalamazoo, says, "I hear so many people complaining about Steener's weiners over the phone." LAVERNE HORN, dietician at a dog hospital, says, "We always feed them to the puppies; they bark for them." Folks, if all this has not convinced you of the beauty of Steener's weiners, we offer you a final comment from DAN PESTRUI, whose occupation is unknown, "Steener's weiners? never heard of them!" And now for HAROLD CONRAD.

GOOD EVENING LADIES AND GENTLEMEN, HERE IS A SPECIAL FLASH! History was made today when President NICK CHYCHLYK signed the bill to purchase Szandohovia. An expedition to explore this vast new regin was also stated in the announcement of the purchase. The new ink-propelled plane, designed by ALAN H. KROHN, will be used for the expedition with those dare-devil pilots, BOB SULLIVAN and JACK STEFAN at the controls. The lucky hostess to accompany them is LOIS BARBER. That globe-trotting senator of "good will," EARL MCGOVERN, and his secretary, FLORENCE RESKA, will also go attended by WILBUR MINCH, who is going just for the ride. The doctors and nurses who will take the newest scientific and medical discoveries to enlighten the inhabitants are ROY HOPKINS, ROSS SCHULTZ, CAROL DOMIN, and JEANNETTE DUERK. In charge of the scientific developments are BILL KNELLER and also KAY MELLERT, the prominent horticulturist.

JIM GERLACH, the big business tycoon, is going in hopes of opening a branch office. His secretary BETTY PHILIPS, will accompany him. Two teachers, BETTY SCHWARTZ and PHYLLIS HEROLD, will examine cultural opportunities. Our roving reporter, SHIRLEY MANNING, will report the hot news on this expedition.

A protest was issued today by manufacturers enraged at the high tariff on big, black cigars. GERHART ALKER, president of the Tip-Top Tiddlewinks, Inc., is the spokesman. BOB BAIRD of Sloppy Soap Suds Co., PETE ADDANTE, antique manufacturer, and LAWRENCE GEDEON of the Gedeon Glue Works are rushing to Washington to lobby for cheaper cigars.

The latest to join the Hall of Fame among the authors banned in Boston is JEANNE SHELFORD. The screen rights to her book were purchased by ART HUMEL, the movie magnate. This was announced by EDNA KREJCI, his secretary. NANCY DREYER and NED "Drool" WILLIAMS will be featured in the passionate love scenes that banned this sensational novel. The publisher, ROLLAND EDMONDS, says that sales have jumped 500 per cent. When interviewed by VIRGINIA HODOUS, reporter on the Ladies Stab Fest, the author said, "Aw, it was nothin'."

What young artist, ROGER BERGHOLZ by name, eloped last night with the glamorous model, LOIS ANNABLE? AVIS JANE RIAL, his charming young instructor, announced the elopement in an exclusive interview with BETTY LOU ECKMAN, noted gossip columnist.

Something new in fashions was shown yesterday at the ultra swank fashion show in DEIKE COMPANY'S basement. JEAN KASTOR, designer of women's better dresses, presented a backless, strapless gown modeled by CLARA PAGNA. Editor of ladies' fashions, BONNIE SAYLOR, thought the whole affair just too, too. ALLAN OUTZS, an interested spectator, said nothing very expressively. All photographs were by MARTY GALL.

AND NOW FOR YOU SPORT FANS, HERE'S THE LATEST NEWS IN THE ATHLETIC SCENE—The world of sports was shocked today because of the sentence given to ART GERGELY by Judge JOHN J. KUBES. Gergely, the most famous athlete in the U. S. (according to a recent poll) was barred from organized sports for life for accepting a bribe of $286,232,986.66 from "Slimy" LARNER, the notorious gambler. One must admit that the figure named is one which would tempt anyone, but Judge Kubes took no pity on the culprit. Gergely cannot even play tic-tac-toe without a special court order.

NANCY CARLSON won the title, Olympic Champion Equestrienne, by a closely contested vote. SHIRLEY EICHENBERG, last year's champ, was the runner-up.

Taking his cue from the Larner-Gergely case, DON MEDALIS, a small-time bootlegger, offered DAVE BECKER, the playing manager of the Parma Cherokees, a purse of $89,000 to throw the forthcoming Tehachope game. He was thrown off the field bodily for his pains. The club's owner, DICK BECK, of "Beck's-Pay-in-Ninety-Days-and-We-Will-Release-Your-Mother Loan Shark Emporium," made the statement that his club would remain completely on the level.

ELLIE CERNY'S champion horse, Red, ran the twenty-furlong race yesterday at Ragweedup in two hours, twenty-six and one-half minutes, finishing eleventh in a field of six.

The anyweight championship fight will be broadcast over this station tonight at 9:00. EUGENE DUERK and LOUIE ZEITLER will battle for the title. Good luck to both of you, and may the best man win.

BILL EMLEY claims that he can make three strikes in three different alleys on the same roll. To be brief—we don't believe it.

NOW FOR SOCIAL HIGHLIGHTS FROM THE WHITEHOUSE—Mrs. Chychlyk, the former JOHANNA KONSTANZER, entertained lavishly at the presidential home. Among the guests were JIM WHITNEY, Secretary of State, Senator ROBERT KAY, and Republican representatives, JIM HEED and BILL KAIL. A fist fight arose between Kay and Heed but was quickly subdued by AUDREY GRAMMES, the President's secretary. Heed, his dignity injured, said, "Humph!" Kay made no comment!

While browsing through FODOR'S Mortuary today, we noticed the bodies of BOB YOUNG, LENORE URBANSKI, CHUCK POLEY, and DOLORES STOVICEK. They looked so natural on their slabs that we were prompted to ask the manner of their deaths. We were informed by mortuary guard, RUSSELL FILIPPONE, that they were killed in a freak taxicab accident. It seems that taxi jockeys, GLENN HENNIS and BOB GRAY, touched fenders. In the ensuing discussion the passengers were unable to obtain sufficient oxygen from the surrounding air because the aforesaid air turned blue, and they died of suffocation.

A tidbit that is circulating all over Broadway is the announcement, by Maestro RICHARD ROUSH, of the lucky singers who will appear in RICHARD (the American Wagner) MILLARD'S newest opera, Ten Nights in a Barroom. Maestro Roush has presented the soprano lead to CAROL BARTEL and the basso lead to ALLEN LAMBACHER, as was expected; but here is the big news—the part of Pie-eye, the barkeeper, has been given to DON DALEY, the well-known singer of popular songs. This is Don's first try at serious singing, but we feel sure that he will be successful, especially since the good maestro has secured the services of some of the world's greatest concert musicians for the orchestra. We have only to mention the names of PATRICIA ELLISON, OTTO DIETZ, and DOLORES CHABEK to give you an idea of the assembled talent.

MARIE WAGNER, the brilliant music critic, is eagerly awaiting the production of this work. ROBERT SCHIERBAUM, the owner of Barnegie Hall, says, "In the interest of art, you'se people can put dis here stuff on in my establishment entirely free of charge."

Music lovers have another treat in store for them. "Swing and Sway with Cooke's Schnooks" is on the way to town. This great musical, which has been breaking attendance records in every American city, brings with it the greatest names of musical comedy ever assembled on one stage at a time. The never-to-be-forgotten singing of CAROL CHAMPNESS, the exotic dancing of the PINKERTON twins, BONNIE and DAUNA, and a laugh a minute with MARION LAMM, who is known far and wide as the greatest comedienne of the stage, together with EARL COOKE'S heavenly tunes, make this the finest show seen in a long, long time. Of special note is the playing of FRANCIS GROSS. Gross, although up to a year ago only a Bowery bum, is a real wizard at the keyboard.

PROGRESS, MY FRIENDS, IS CREEPING UP ON US! The long arm of capitalism is about to invade this peaceful city. I refer to Somsak's Super Shrimpy Shrimps new concern, which is going to be built here in town. This statement was confirmed by the corporation's president, MIKE SOMSAK, immediately after a board meeting yesterday. The board members—MILLY CHOKEY, BETTY FUNK, ANN STEC, MILDRED MILLER, and EVELYN BOSOTY—voted unanimously to erect the building here. The building contract is scheduled to go to the SPAULDING-MOENICH Corporation.

Last night, society was overwhelmed by a party given by MARGE WOODRIG.

Wine flowed like wine and the guests were dressed in jewelry amounting to thousands in the dime store business. The guest list, which included such celebrities as artists, JEWEL LINGLER and FRED PALFY, and musicians, JOANNE ROSE and BOB QUALLICH, sounded much like Page 42 of Parma's social register. JACK PHILLIPS and ILSE BARTENS represented Hollywood, and cameras clicked as Miss America, JEAN GALITZ, entered. Those dashing men-about-town, DAVE DARMSTADT, BOB FORSTER, and DAVE BUSCH, surrounded her the entire evening. Socialites JEWEL HEIN, CORINNE WOLLENZIER, and JOAN MEDER were entranced by Powers model, JOAN KING.

Only one guest escaped the Hotel GERVAIS fire. She is HELEN SHAV-KANYCH, a tight-rope walker, who escaped by means of a telephone wire stretched from the hotel to an adjoining building. The manager of the establishment, one GORDON COWGILL, personally rescued the switchboard operator, JEANNINE BELL, the manicurist, LILLIAN EVEK, and lunchroom waitress, DOLORES ARCHER. The fire department never showed up. When questioned, the chief, GEORGE ZAYAC said, "Wal, me an' BOB VOSS an' FRANK SCURLOCK an' a couple more o' the boys wuz havin' a li'l pinochle game, an' we di'n' want tuh stop fer such a measly thing as a fiar."

We agree entirely. The fire department has more important things to do than chase every little fire that comes up.

The jury, after being out for 57 hours, came forth with a snap decision in the case of State vs. RUTH DIETZ. The jury, whose chairman is DOLORES FREEMAN, decided that Miss Dietz definitely did not go out with a Rhodes man. BOB RUCH, the district attorney, had only one comment—unprintable, which was hastily recorded by court secretary, NORMA MAURER. The chief witnesses for the state were BETTY SUCKOW, a waitress, and HOWARD WOERNLEY, a taxi driver. VIVIAN DeJEAN was the character witness for the defense.

Quizmaster, NORMAN BEREIT, of the "Be Right—and Win Money" show has secured a sponsor at last. In yesterday's show (a dismal flop, by the way) the contestants—RUTH JARMUTH, RITA KUNDTZ, DON GLICK, and NANCY MILLER—failed to answer the questions correctly, so nobody received one of BISMARCK NEWMAN'S atomic can openers. The only bright spot on the program was the guest appearance of GILBERT ARNDT, the oldest bat-boy in big league baseball; but even this failed to liven up the impossibly dull proceedings. (Note: Mr. Bereit had the impertinence to give this station an insult on one of his previous programs, and we will see him in Rhodes before we give him one line of good criticism.)

BUNNY FRITSCH, brilliant star of the Ice Follies, broke her ankle just before last night's performance, but MARIE VISH arrived in the nick of time and skated sensationally. A feature attraction of this year's Ice Follies is a comic ballet performed by DOT CARPENTER—and she doesn't wear skates which makes it even harder! Other comedy ice skaters featured were ED ZIELKE and ED WENTAR. ROSS ORITI and BILL HUSAK brought down the house by jumping twenty barrels. Dr. B. STONE and chiropractor, DAN LAWRENCE, were called in to work over the boys after this amazing feat.

HOLD ON TO YOUR HATS, GIRLS! KENNETH DREHER recently discovered men living on the moon. Spit-ball rocket pilot, DAN MIRANDA, backed by financier, JAMES STRUNK, who invented the rocket special, has announced hourly trips. LOIS SCROLL, BETSY WILLIAMS, EDITH CAPTIN, and LaVERNE GEDEON were among the first to sign up for this exciting trip. Good luck, girls!

The Bums of Greater America are making a search for treasurer, DON HARPSTER. It seems Don fell asleep while member bums—JIM DUNKIN, DON MILTER, FRED HALLER, and DON JEAVONS—were boarding a train at Chattanooga. Bum's secretary, RALPH MORGAN, is in Chattanooga seeking the aid of stationmaster, DON SALZGEBER, and, if necessary, he will go to Chattanooga's mayor, WALLACE ROHN. LEN KOZAR, president, says he certainly hopes they find Don soon because their dimes are running low.

FLASH! Fighting for his life at HOPKINS Hospital, is DAVE LOUIS who was rescued by sailor, BOB LORENCE, after he had floated on a raft on Lake Erie for fifteen days. He was first spotted by a whale boat captain, GLENN ABEND. Life savers were immediately thrown to him, and after safely reaching the deck he collapsed into a coma. IRENE TARKA, Superintendent of Nurses, is working night and day to bring him out of the coma.

Where does JOSH FLAUTZ get the models for those calendars? That was the question going around the Paris art colony today. The TAYLOR, TAYLOR, and TAYLOR Detective Agency is reportedly on the trail for private reasons. Prominent members of the colony were questioned. Sculptor FRANK HORVATH stopped chipping away on a statute of RITA FRANKLIN long enough to deny any connection. RALPH EMERICK, the famous doodler, absent-mindedly copied a telephone number off the wall and replied that he was knowin' but not tellin'. DOLORES GRAFINGER and BEVERLY BATTERS grew hysterical when approached and would not even speak after they knew the matter under inquiry. The whole country is puzzled; but Taylor, Taylor, and Taylor say they will track this thing to its source or die in the attempt.

ATTENTION, LADIES! Beauty and grace being the aim of all women, certain businessmen have financed the Hubba-hubba Salon. In the way of facial improvements we recommend BOLOCA'S hair-dos and massages by beauticians, CENGIC and YOUCHISON. Then each woman's vanity is brought to its peak when she is given a gown personally designed for her by the talented PAULINE LACHNER. Her appearance lacking nothing, she is enlightened to the modern dance steps by instructors, VARGO and BIANCO. After this renovation she is ready to step out into the world.

We have a special flash from JIM CUSICK, our collector of unusual occupations. He has just added a few more professions to his list which now totals 9,999.

Data is not available, but an unusual position is that held by ROSE BARSANIAN, who is a monkey dietician at Monkey's Coney Island at New York. This work takes eight years of college training.

Another unusual occupation which popped up is a runner-up to the Lost Weekend. Liquor connoisseur, ANTHONY ACELA, tests more than twenty different brands of liquor each day. The unusual part of this job is that he doesn't test it for taste, but for strength. What a life!

Along this line comes mattress tester, CHUCK JELINEK. He just sleeps on the job all the time.

RAY SETTEUR is the champ of champs at his unusual occupation. He is a chess player who can play twenty different games at one time. Previous records show that no chess player has played more than fifteen games at one time.

And last, but not least, is the unusual occupation held by RUTH BORCHERT and MARY RUTTI, who are chocolate dippers.

MARGIE KUNART, the president of the Every Third Thursday Women's Club, is all a twitter over the astounding guests which program chairman, DORIS KUHLMAN, has obtained for this year. At their next meeting the ladies will be going scientific when CHARLES SPENCER and ROBERT SCHEY will explain just what happens in a car when you shift gears. They've always wanted to know. Next month AGNES KANIESKI, a prominent psychologist, will read their minds. This should be interesting! JOANNE LEIBY will be on hand to tell them what movies to see. SALLIE JORGENSEN and LOUISE HROMYAK will debate on the question, "Should Parma have street lights?" LOIS HEPLER will tell all on, "How blondes get that way." LORA SILLER and MARY GOTTSCHICK will give up the secret, "How to Overcome Shortness," for the benefit of the shorties. CAROL STEFFEN, our personal representative in Congress, is another one of these scintillating speakers. Besides all this excitement VIRGINIA LEPOLE and ANNABELLE DARMOUR will have charge of whipping up some dandy refreshments. MARY KONDEERS, the efficient secretary of this peppy organization, sums it all up by saying, "Gee!"

A last minute announcement before we go off the air. Have you bought your circus tickets yet? DON ESPER, owner of the Tingling Brothers Circus says that there are only a few tickets left. Main attractions are CLARA MORA and BETTY MATHEWS, bareback horse riders who ride in perfect unison, ELWOOD ROOB and BILL SUTYAK, swinging aerialists who do a perfect swan dive in mid-air, and JOHN LADER, our man of iron who is shot out of a cannon 500 feet into the air. Those funnier-than-funny clowns, DICK OLSEN and JIM GUSCOTT, will also be there to entertain you. And to climax this circus, there will be an amazing spectacular half-hour show by ARNOLD ROEBLE, the greatest lion trainer since Sy Weedy.

So don't forget—get your tickets now!

SPORTS

Bunny Fritsche was selected by the Spectrum staff as most outstanding in sports outside of school. Holder of the Ohio State Intermediate Amateur Racing Championship for the last five years, Bunny has won twenty other skating titles. She is a member of the Ohio Skating Association and has been Midwestern Champion for two years as well as winner of the Chicago Silver Skates for two years.

Art Gergely was chosen most outstanding in scholastic sports by the coaches because of his sportsmanship and athletic ability. As a letterman, Art has played end on the football team for three years and has chalked up three years for basketball and track. He has proven a most valuable center in basketball as well as runner and broad jumper in track.

Don Daley, chosen as the outstanding vocalist by the music department, has been a member of both the boys' glee and the concert choir for two years. His clear tenor voice has won him a first from the Annual Cleveland Music Contest for two years. He has also participated in many musical activities in and out of school.

Dick Millard, selected as the outstanding instrumentalist by the music department, has been a member of both band and orchestra for four years. Student conductor of the band this year, he has won a second in the Annual Cleveland Music Contest for the past three years. Playing both clarinet and alto sax, he has taken a total of eight and one half years of music lessons.

SCHOLARSHIP

Bonnie Saylor, valedictorian, has earned the honor of ranking first in scholastic ability by maintaining an A average throughout the four years. She has been active in many extracurricular activities. A member of the National Honor Society for three years, she served as secretary this year. Last year she had the lead in the junior play and this year served as editor of the Spectrum.

Carol Steffen has earned the honor of being named salutatorian because of her outstanding scholastic ability. Combining ability and charm, she maintained her high grades while participating in many extracurricular activities. She was a member of the Hi-Spot staff, National Honor Society, and many other clubs.

SENIORS

Marge Kunart, selected by the senior class as the girl most outstanding in leadership, has been active in many extracurricular activities. As vice president of Girls' Leaders, treasurer of Y-Teen Friendship, and treasurer of the canteen she has proven herself reliable, trustworthy, and honest. Serving on student council for three years, she was secretary of that organization this year and took part in many student activities.

Jim Whitney, chosen by the senior class as the boy most outstanding in leadership, has been class president for three successive years. While planning and directing many senior activities, he found time to take a major part in the senior play, serve on student council, and be an active member of many other clubs.

LEADERSHIP

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Class of 1947, of the City of Parma, County of Cuyahoga, State of Ohio, Country of the United States, Universe of the Heavens, being of superior mind and memory, hereby revoke all other attempts hitherto made by any former class and make, publish, and declare this to be our last will and testament:

Bob Schey leaves his Senior Patrol badge (203) to Lee Pierpont.

To her brother, Richard, Virginia Hodous wills the unfinished pages in her civics workbook.

Joan King hands down a pair of roller skates to next year's attendance gatherer.

I, Charles Jelinek, leave to Parma another "Bimbo" to roam its endless corridors—my brother, Bob.

Lawrence Gedeon wills the "Ged-e-on" appeal to any person who feels he needs it.

Jack Kubes wills some "ice kubes" to ease the pain of hard studying in his senior year to Russ Morgan.

I, Bill Kneller, will my grim determination in football to Alan Burkart, Parma's right guard.

Mary Gottschick and Dolores Freeman leave a "curt" reply to any question concerning MAX-imum efficiency.

Ed Wentar wills his neutral nature to Ronald Hickson.

I, Ann Stec, will to my brother all the good times I had at Parma—if he is willing to accept them.

Gerhart Alker (the teacher's desired student) wills the quiet hours he spent in homeroom to all future approachers of Parma.

Dolores Stovicek wills her knocked-out notebook (minus paper, natch!) to Virginia Larsen.

Lillian Evke offers her attendance census to any keen-eyed observer.

I, Mildred Miller, leave to my sister, Lois, the good times I had at lunch, that is, if she has the strength to laugh and eat at the same time.

To Miss Tate, I, Betty Mathews, leave a dozen students who she unfortunately may have three periods a day.

Bismarck (2-for-a-nickel) Newman leaves his brisk pretzel trade to Bob O'Neil.

Betty Funk wills her ingenuity in getting the hall pass every day in typing class to Janet Johnston.

I, Audrey Grammes, leave all the froggy throats I got at football and basketball games to Lois Behrend.

Ruth Jarmuth wills her ability to drain pass money from those "much-too-low" weekly allowances to some poverty-stricken freshman.

Ray Setteur leaves his "Cushman goggles" to any soph unable to see.

Carol Steffen (Sweet Miriam) hands down her "Pepsodent" smile to Betty Bender.

Don Harpster donates a sheepskin-lined band uniform to his sister, Judith, for next year's Charity game.

Bob Spaulding leaves an application to Broadview Industrial School to any frosh who can take over his place.

Betty Suckow wills her one lonesome study hall to her sister.

Bonnie Saylor leaves the technique of slamming her locker door to stop the flow of books to Donna Balph.

I, Barbara Stone, hereby will to another lucky female the fun of being a member of the Boys' Glee Club (accompanist, of course!)

Kay Mellert reserves her desk in shorthand class for her sister, Carol—just to keep it in the family!

Helen Shavkanych hands down to Denny DeJean a pedometer to record the many miles he will walk to school next year.

Bonnie Pinkerton leaves a sincere sympathy for anyone taking biology in the future.

I, Norman Bereit, will my red hat to any underclassman with a "square noggin."

Ilse Bartens offers her wishful thoughts of taking 150 words a minute in shorthand to Beverly Hook.

Don Natterer leaves Parma, hoping that a new P. C. C. streetcar will eventually lead up to the north entrance to compensate for those long rides and walks.

Francis Scurlock wills the sentence, "Yes, but what color do you want your bracelet?" to any enterprising sophomore.

I, Joe Bianco, will all the headaches of trying to "will" something to the dear underclassmen.

I, Bill Emley, will a radio for each classroom so that students will be able to listen to "Just Plain Bill."

Sal (cheerleader) Jorgensen wills her ability to jump so high at the beginning of a cheer that she can't be seen for the remainder of it to L. L. Behrend.

Howard Woernly leaves his sixth period flash card to Jack (ice-man) McConnell who can take a tenth period with the best of them.

Gene Taylor leaves his "Taylor-made" overalls to any future printer.

I, Dan Miranda, will my seat in Miss Barnhardt's homeroom to the lucky freshman who will get her.

Jim Strunk leaves a certain little animal with a white streak to "die hards" who insist on calling him—you know what!

A senior leaves with the understanding that all parents who name their sons "Francis" are guilty of "Gross" neglect.

I, Kenneth Dreher, will all my good times in choir to Bill Vura.

I, Ellwood Roob, hereby will all the fun in the halls of P. S. H. to Carol Geiss.

Al Schigulinsky, Jim Chopak, and Jack Stefan will to Andy Nester and Chuck Schlosser their good times they had in Parma and its suburb, Berea.

Don Glick wills his "Barbasol" haircut to Dick DeNobel.

Bob Young leaves his unquestioned driving habits to Ronald Branske.

Bob Voss wills his ability to keep up in all subjects, regardless of absence, to Lee Steppke, who also has many morning sessions with Mr. Pilot.

I, Ross Oriti, hereby leave all of my unpaid dues to the class of '48.

William Sutyak wills a great deal more patience to Mr. Pilot for his trouble in making him a senior.

Betsy Williams wills her predictions of things to come to any future prophet.

I, Vivian De Jean, leave senior math and much pity to next year's unfortunates.

Shirley Eichenberg bequeaths all her consumed (?) musical knowledge to any up-and-coming musician.

I, Erna Deike, will my innocent look while cracking "chew stuff" to all fellow gum chewers.

Doris Kuhlman wills all her worn-out shoes to any underclassman who journeys down Hampstead Rd. each morning.

Edna Krejci leaves her knack of holding dilapidated stamp plans together while she punches them at games to Virginia Ponting.

Lois Annable is not leaving anything—Roger, "Wilco."

I, Jewel Hein, donate a wagon to Jean Parmiter so that she can carry her "widdle" bass fiddle around with ease.

To Arline Lusk and Eustine Hornack, I, Rose Boloca, will my lizard pin if they can remove it from my coat.

I, Nancy Carlson, leave my Friday-night bus service to any "diplomat" who can manage to get the family car.

Marge Woodrig says, "Please take it," to any one who wants her great bowling average.

Bill Kail wills the miracle of building a transmitter and having it work the first time to Bob Leach.

Bob Ruch leaves his two-year padded cell to next year's Director of Safety.

Jeanette Duerk bequeaths her ability of creating an explosion in her educational chemistry class to any curious freshman.

Ed Zielke will definitely not leave his "cozy cushman" to Phil Comella.

I, Jean Kastor, will my ability to get from Annex 5 to study hall 211 on time to some future track star.

I, Dave Becker, bequeath my happy (?) senior year to any junior—I'm all "tuckered" out!

Louise Hromyak hands down her nickname "Liz" to Betty (Liz) Munger.

Clara Mora wills the aching arches she acquired tripping the light fantastic at the canteen to Neil Lowther.

Art Gergely abandons the Redmen "Hucksters" hoping they will continue to sell their "school spirit" wares.

Dan Pestru wills his basketball knowledge (??) to Mike Bitterman.

Gilbert Arndt leaves those "Well, aren't your name Gilbert?" answers to Mr. Gibson.

Carole Champness wills her job in the lunch room to any junior who has counter hands like a champ.

Art Humel leaves Schaaf with the happy knowledge of knowing one Spanish word—"No"!

Annabelle Darmour wills nothing except her brother, Harry.

Bob Gervais leaves his Schaaf High nightmares to Bob Hildebrand.

Carol Domin bequeaths all the knowledge (?) she attained in civics class to her brother, David, hoping that he will learn more than she did.

Frank Horvath leaves a Model A valve cap for Grant Krueger's unvalved Plymouth.

Edith Captin leaves her seat in homeroom to any hopeful junior.

Bob Gray is willing his Irish green "wolf wagon" to any "Lower Slobovian" junior.

Dave Darmstadt leaves his hair instead of his arm to Janice Delfs.

Bob Kay wills to Van Stoffer his ability to arouse the wrath of his fellow classmates by cutting the noon movie during the most exciting parts.

Don Salzgeber leaves his broom and mop (used after school only!) to any future enthusiastic workman.

Lora Siller leaves her four leaf clover and rabbit's foot to her sister, Rosemarie, to keep her out of tenth periods.

Rolland Edmonds leaves his stage crew hammer, saw, and fire drill.

Jim Guscott leaves his gun and club to the underclassmen Gun Club members in hopes that they continue to "gun" for new members.

We, Betty Phillips and Joanne Rose, hereby will our good times in study hall to anyone who can get away with it!

Fred Palfy offers his knack of thumbing rides to Jim Gervais.

Johanna Konstanzer and Nick Chychlyk will their two empty seats in the noon movie to Bill King and Carole Basile.

Len Kozar wills a brass name plate to his very "Eug" brother and Carm Cozza so that people will not confuse their last names.

Allen Outz wills his physics workbook (minus the torn out experiments) to anyone who can complete it.

I, Shirley Manning, do hereby will to Joan Schrock all the chemistry problems I did not do this year. To Eileen Duckwitz and Shirley Schuttenberg, Jane Rial and Marie Vish will the fortitude to be together seven periods a day and still be on speaking terms.

Milly Choeky leaves to her sister, Rosemarie, the "Choeky tradition" of being just a little bit shorter than everyone else.

John Lader leaves his tardy explanation—"better Lad-er than never"—to Mr. Pilot.

Lois Heppler bequeaths to her sister, Dot, energy for her morning tour of the halls.

Vivian Cauble may have Irene Tarka's current problems class if she doesn't have many troubles of her own next year.

Lois Barber donates her luck to "munch" in the noon movie without leaving telltale evidence to Anadele King.

If Ken Kulow ever makes a perfect 300 in his bowling league, Dave Busch bequeaths the right for the juniors to duck him in the Iron "Kettle."

I, Rose Barsanian, humbly bequeath my four o'clock broom to Jeanette Keith—her helicopter doesn't work.

Lois Schroll wills more power to anyone who takes shorthand II and tries to absorb that thing called "knowledge."

Pat Ellison hands down the fiendish joy of hunting up victims for the tenth period roundup to any junior.

I, Virginia Lepole, will a map of our fair city to my brother, Harry, so that he won't get lost journeying two miles each day to school.

I, Norma Maurer, will to a future four-year band member some extra oxygen to keep the music flowing.

Jim Whitney hopes that his stable "Whit-tle knees" will help "Big Jim" Keils in basketball, so he'll try to leave them.

Ellie Cerny and Evie Bosoty will their miraculous speed of 20 words a minute in typing, after taking it two years, to any ambitious junior.

Corinne Wollenzier wills to Jayne Leiby the power to trap her man and hold him.

Laverne Gedeon wills all the odors she inhaled in cooking class to Rita Lorenz.

Marge Vargo wills to Jean Guscott three more years in Girls' Glee Club if she can keep up their record of singing off-key!

Marion Lamm came in like a lion but she's leaving like a "Lamm."

Jeannine Bell bequeaths her "ringing" personality to Thomasina Monroe.

Marie Wagner leaves ninth period hall guard duty and the wonderful people you meet there (HMMMMM!) to any girl.

I, Betty Schwartz, hereby will my gay times as an office assistant to next year's "little helpers."

Pauline Lachner reluctantly (?) wills to Shirley Kregenow, her dearly beloved brother, Don.

"Jasper" Larner and Jewel Lingler will their "little old jalopy that comes around so often" to any underclassman who has the fortitude to keep it "puttin'."

I, Don Daley, will my best joke (namely my "Rabbit Joke") to any unexpected freshman.

Eugene Duerk wills his "altitude" to any needy freshman.

I, Lenore Urbanski, will the after-school "hen sessions" in the auditorium to Joan, Clarice, Marion, and Lois.

I, Phyllis Herold, will my filing-cabinet purse to Ellen Ondrasik who, I hope, is a better bookkeeper than I.

Alan Krohn leaves, but not willingly.

Jim Dunkin wills his "straight edge razor" to any sophomore taking geometry.

I, Nancy Miller, bequeath to any member of the movie crew the ability to try to stop the future track stars of P. S. H. from leaving before the bell rings.

Ruth Borchert and Clara Pagna will their ability to get along well with Miss Barnhardt to George Harivel, who isn't doing so well.

Charles Spencer wills his "rousing" school spirit to those students lazy enough to accept it.

Earl Cooke wills his "ability" to transpose viola scores in orchestra to Bob Anthony.

Marty Gall wills the art of taking pictures at the wrong places (girls' gym) to the next year's photographer. (hum!)

I, Dick Millard, will to my "rival," Herb Hauschildt, the ability to play first chair clarinet for three consecutive years.

Florence Reska wills her wonderful, magnificent, thrilling, stupendous, and terrific senior year to her sister, Mary Ann.

Don Medalis wills a lot of luck to the person who can devise a good method of choosing an athletic team manager.

Al Lambacher bequeaths his vocal success to any freshman with a squeaky voice.

I, Rita Franklin, will to Ethel Dorosy my ability to be any place at anytime and never know what's happening.

Louie Zeitler wills the art of finding a place (for three years) to park that '36 "Chevy" to anybody who owns one.

Bob Quallich offers his style of dancing to Baxter (Arthur Murray) Venable.

Bob Schierbaum wills his interesting chemistry hours to Erwin Ahrens hoping they will not hold a "mist"-ery for him.

Dick Beck leaves a dozen of paper plates to Dick Disch.

Jack Phillips wills the expenses of graduation to anyone with a little brain and a big pocketbook.

Fred Haller wills his American history woes to Walter Prinz and Joe Szuba.

Dolores Archer wills to any freshman the job of being Mr. Stoffer's personal and private secretary in homeroom.

Glenn Abend wills his ability to get to school at 8:29 to anyone who likes to sleep late.

Marion Motrunick leaves all of her absence slips (excused, natch!) to Miss Wolfe.

Agnes Kanieski wills her ability to take 200 (?) words a minute in shorthand to anyone with twenty fingers.

Beverly Batters wills her luck in cooking class in making a better "batter" to Rhoda Roberts and Dolores Domann.

Bob Lorence gives his risks of escaping from printing with the letters C,A,R,O,L,E to any other spellbound romancer.

Power of reasoning, instead of that of solving, is left to any "X" student of algebra by Jim Heed.

Ralph (faithful) Emerick wills his booming voice at athletic events to Don Holstrager.

Elsie Youchison wills her record of not missing a day or being tardy for four years to some healthy freshman.

I, Dee Jay Chabek, will my helpful father to any geometry slave who can use a bit of assistance.

Joan Leiby wills to Grace Tomka the art of quieting noon movie audiences.

I, Ralph Morgan, leave my two subjects a day to any intelligent junior.

Ross Schultz wills his 7th period (not good in 47-48) flash card to Bob Machwart.

To Bob Walker, Dave Louis, wills his "beat-out" pre-flight book.

To any underclassman, Pete Addante wills his art of eating raisins in Prof. Cordisco's law class to someone with an iron constitution.

George Zayac wills his unfortunate ability of losing his report card on his way home to any other forger.

Ned Williams wills his amazing record of no tenth periods to the freshmen and Ripley.

Don Milter leaves his unused comb to Dan Binker.

Jack Taylor wills to George McIntyre the pleasure of running the big press in the print shop.

Roy Hopkins leaves his "shoot-em-daid-center" rifle to Don McGovern.

Bob Baird wills his "grin-and-baird it" attitude to an unhappy underclassman.

Otto Dietz wills to Happy Sauners the privilege of walking through the halls for the next three years by herself.

Earl McGovern wills to Miss Forsythe his convertible jeep to get from Orchard to Redfern.

Dolly Grafinger leaves to Mildred Duwe the difficult task of finding another "platter-jockey" to equal that wonderful Howie Lund.

I, Carol Bartel, donate my "trusty" fountain pen to Pat Bailey and also a box of Kleenex.

Jeanne Galitz wills to Vonnie Whitney some much-needed will power to prevent "indulging" during 9th period on Thursday night.

Bunny Fritsche wills to Doretta Maag the right to try to follow in her skate steps.

To his cousin, Don Hemmeter, Jim Gerlach wills his quiet hours on the football bench.

Josh Flautz wills his classroom wisecracks to someone who has no desire for the faculty's goodwill.

Roger (just call him "Rog") Bergholz wills his natural blond hair to all "drug-store" blondes.

Richard Roush wills his big BB flat bass and all its dead weight to A. B. Schultz.

I, Glenn Hennis, will my tattered stage crew shirt to Milton Feuerstein.

I, Mary Konders, will the use of the "Fifth Column" as an excuse for listening in on "conversations" to next year's gossip hound.

Gordon Cowgill wills his trouble with women to Don Holstrager.

I, Jeanne Shelford, will my woolly socks to incoming freshmen with cold feet.

Harold Conrad wills to his brother, "Bernie," the "awakening mile walk" to school each morning.

Don Esper wills Miss Flory's daily half-sheet test papers to any underclassman with a good memory.

Nancy Dreyer wills to Lu Shaw her first place in the "Leaders'" mirror.

Marge Kunart wills to her sister, Jeanne, the ability to make the 500-yard dash to the bus stop every morning in one minute.

I, Bob Forster, will to any jive jumper all the hot lick disks at the canteen.

"Bonnie" Bill Husak departs with the thought that a Scotch class (for brogueishness) would be a good idea for next year's curriculum.

I, Betty Lou Eckman, leave my ability to talk at the rate of a mile a minute to the mouse in Miss Forsythe's English class.

Bob Fodor leaves his last name, Fodor, to Rudy Fedor-chak.

Dauna Pinkerton, as a weary traveler who transferred from one school to another, wills her luck in graduating from Parma.

Mike Somsak bequeaths his fun ("wolfing," he says) in the corridors of P. S. H. to an inmate, Frank (oh, you kid!) Birsá.

Dan Lawrence vacates the office of presidency of the canteen to anyone who doesn't do much on Friday nights.

Mary Cengic wills her ability to become acquainted with her classmates in a year's time to some senior who will be a new member of the class of '48.

Wallace Rohn leaves Parma's super, duper, modern projector to an underclassman who has enough patience to operate it.

Chuck Poley hands down his light blue zoot coat to some "aw'reet" character.

I, Rita Kundtz, leave the courage to whip up weird recipes in cooking class to my sister, Donna.

Ruth Dietz wills to a shorthand whiz the joys of arguing with Mr. Bogart—and winning once in a while!

Dot Carpenter donates a large red "welcome" mat for her brother, Don.

Mary Rutti is leaving her sister, Pat, to keep the arguments "interesting" in civics class.

Bob Sullivan leaves all the programs he printed (fire and heat, the objects!) to P. 3.

In Witness Whereof, we, the Class of 1947, have set our hands hereto this fourth day of June in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and forty-seven.

The Class of 1947

Signed, sealed, published, and declared as and for their last will and testament by the Class of 1947, the above-named testator, in the presence of us, who at its request and in the presence of them and of each other, have subscribed our names hereto as witnesses on the day and year last aforesaid.

DEAR DIARY

Herewith is reproduced for the benefit (?) of posterity the highlights of a diary kept by Susie Student during the school term of 1946 and 1947:

Dear Diary,

September 4—Oh yes, today was the eventful day. Yes, diary, we went gayly tripping back to the halls of P. S. H. for our first day of drudgery after a not too long but enjoyable vacation.

September 14—Went to the opening football game which was played on the Garfield gridiron. The Redmen brought home a victory by winning, 13-6.

October 5—Had our first dance of the school year which was sponsored by the Y-Teen Friendship Club at Thoreau Park. The music was terrific.

November 1—Were entertained by the Bell Ringers in assembly. It was very nobby.

November 2—The band put on a stunt featuring the Parma Redmen. "Scalping" session with Berea was followed by a "stomping" session at Thoreau Park.

November 12—Open house—now the parents know how their offsprings behave (?) when not under their thumbs.

November 16—Gee, I had a divine time at the Girls Leaders dance.

December 20, 21—Our music department presented the First Patrons Concert. Even old St. Nick was there with a bagful of toys.

December 21—At last, the long-awaited Christmas vacation had arrived!

January 4—We played Garfield tonight. It was a tough fight, but we won. Yea! Team!

February 6—Student body was shown the trials and tribulations of married life by a one-act play presented by the Soc and Buskin entitled, "Why I Am a Bachelor."

February 8—We seniors certainly are proud of the talent that was displayed at the Fourth Annual Senior Recital. Confidentially, diary, I think it was the best Senior Recital ever.

February 22—All the jitterbugs of P. S. H. certainly did celebrate George's birthday in fine style at the dance sponsored by the German, Spanish, and Council on World Affairs Clubs.

March 7, 8—Terrific, yes, that's what we called the Second Patrons Concert. I wonder if Mr. Davis will ever run out of "brainstorms."

March 21—"Who done it?"—that's what everyone was asking at the senior play, "A Murder Has Been Arranged," featuring "Bobby" Stone, Jim Whitney, and other talented seniors.

March 30—The Vesper Concert given by the concert choir was very impressive with the traditional church windows and candles burning at sundown.

April 22—This was the day we all looked into the future and decided (?) what we'd like to do after we have been graduated. Yes, Career Day was launched for the first time in P. S. H. history.

April 25, 26—Variety Night certainly was a huge success. Gee, I never realized how gifted some of our students are!

May 3—This was "our" night—the night of our Senior Dance which we'll never forget!

May 9, 10—The entire music department presented a combined concert. Congratulations were accorded to the music department on a fine job.

May 16, 17—"Our Hearts Were Young and Gay," a delightful comedy was presented by the Junior Class.

May 29—The Juniors gave us our farewell dance, the "Prom." What a wonderful "going-away" present. Thanks loads, Juniors.

June 1—Baccalaureate Service, at which time we realized how important our school years had been.

June 4—At last—after twelve years we were graduated; and, with happy thoughts, we now turn to the future.

EXTRA-CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

Here are the "boss men and women" of

They like dramatics and someday they'll be
The stars of the cinema
—maybe!!

Under their grease
paint they sweated
and toiled,
So that the murderer,
Conrad, was foiled.

This group gave "Their Hearts—Young and Gay."

My good golly, it sure was a play!

They're lured by drama
which is quite a task.
That's why their club's named after the mask.

FOOTBALL SUMMARY

Parma's Redmen started the '46 football season in the right direction by clinching a hard fought foreign battle with the Garfield Bulldogs, and at the same time made up for last year's defeat. The slim 7-6 victory came as a result of the efforts of Carmen Cozza and Art Gergely who together accounted for the seven points. Cozza passed to Gergely in the third quarter and followed up with a plunge for the extra point.

Striking while the iron was still hot, the Parma eleven slaughtered the Glenville squad in a push-over game to the tune of 26-7 on the home field. Parma was on the ball and the scoreboard showed a great improvement over the defeat of last season.

Shore High School's eleven must have been really clicking the following week when the Redmen visited them for the final score in the contest was 40-6. The Shore squad had the situation in from the beginning and the Red and Gray's had tough sledding to score their own touchdown.

Still smarting from defeat the week before, Parma entertained Western Reserve Academy and made up for the Shore game by taking over with a 12-7 victory.

Highlight of the contest was an 87 yd. run by Parma's Bob Hain early in the first quarter to tally the initial touchdown. Parma's other score came in the third quarter by means of a pass from Bill King to Art Gergely who carried the ball home.

They still say it was the rain, but, whatever it was, the Parma gridders came out the little end of the horn as the University Preppers trounced Parma on the local stamping grounds. The Tribe was taken for a buggy ride and were rewarded with a large goose-egg on the final score, 13-0.

After the University massacre, the "Country-Cousins" went into town to visit their "Buttercup" friends at the James Ford Rhodes field. It seemed that the Rhodents were very hospitable and did not live up to their name. Parma's defense held up fairly well under the pounding by Rhodes, but their offense was ineffective against the Ram's line. Unable to get their offense plays working, the Redmen were walked all over and the final score was 19-0.

With two scoreless defeats behind them, the Schaaf gridders put on the steam and defeated their other rivals, the Berea Cardinals in the final game of the season. The Berea boys put up a stiff defense and had the Parma eleven hard pressed to hold a lead. As it was, the Berea squad followed close in the last quarter and the Redmen won the contest by a one-point margin. The final score of the game was 21-20.

This season's work placed the Tribe a little higher than last year, their record showing four wins and three losses.

BASKETBALL SUMMARY

The local boys started out the season with a losing streak as the St. Ignatius squad came out victorious on a 46-37 score. Ray Taylor led a fighting Parma squad to a fourth period comeback to slim the Ignatius lead down to a nine point victory.

The Redmen took their John Hay opponents for their first win in a see-saw battle to the tune of 27-26. This close contest was won on the John Hay floor and the scoring was highlighted by the fact that the lead never varied more than three points.

Going out for their second victory of the season, Parma's defenders traveled to Strongsville to snatch a 38-33 win from the foreign five.

The annual Alumni-Varsity was taken in stride as the local boys triumphed over their ancestors in a close one, 33-32. In the fray, the regulars stopped the alumni by holding Johnny "Mutt" Motezik to a few points.

Garfield Heights fell before a smashing second half attack in the Parma-Garfield clash as the Redmen added another scalp to their belt, 40-33.

The Parma five whipped University School with a 36-19 decision and another opponent bit the dust giving Parma a five straight victory record.

The night following the University game proved to be a nemesis for the Redmen as a final burst of power from a visiting Reserve squad pushed Parma under for its second defeat, 37-32.

Still smarting from the defeat the week before, the locals gave the Strongsville squad a second shellacking in a return game with the score, 28-41.

Carpenters, or otherwise the West Tech cagers, defeated the Parma five at Tech for a 44-35 win. The game was characterized by plucky Parma spirit but the Carpenters proved just a little tougher. On the whole, this was a contest worth seeing because Parma was at her best and the opponents had to work hard to keep any kind of a lead.

Euclid Shore's Admirals sailed all over Parma with a 51-27 victory, and Parma entered a losing streak. With the gentlemen from Rhodes playing host to the squad, Parma ventured onto foreign soil again and were triumphed over by a flashy Rhodes five. The outcome netted a 43-33 defeat.

Berea clicked on her contest with Parma and the Redmen suffered defeat again, this time by an eleven point deficit to register a 56-45 loss.

Pasting the hoop from every side with beautiful accuracy, Parma High soundly whipped Rocky River, 68 to 32 for the last scheduled game of the season. Art Gergely and Don Medalis were the stars in this one connecting for 22 and 18 points respectively. This was the seventh victory out of thirteen contests and the highest score netted this year. Parma's record for the season chalked up seven wins and six losses.
